SUBJECT: Michigan Food Law/Food Code Three Day Training Session
January 22-24, 2008.

The Michigan Department of Agriculture, Food and Dairy Division, plans to offer a three-day Food Law/Food Code training course for new employees. There is no charge for this course.

This three day course will teach the 2005 FDA Food Code and the Michigan Food Law of 2000, as amended. The course is designed for Local Health Department and MDA food inspectors.

Prior to attending this class, Local Health Department students should complete the following:

- Michigan's 1999 Food Code Self-Study Familiarization Guide; and
- Training Program for the Professional Food Service Sanitarian- Modules 1 and 4; or ORA University courses; and
- Twenty-five inspections with their Standardized Trainer.

You may signup for this training through your MI TRAIN account, at www.mi.train.org
