The Food Service Program is pleased to welcome Becky Krzyzanowski as our new Specialist. Becky will be the new plan review specialist for the Food Service Program, and questions can be directed to Becky at 517-335-0043.

Rebecca (Becky) Krzyzanowski worked with Central Michigan District Health Department in 2002 as food specialist for Roscommon, Gladwin and Arenac counties. In 2003 she became a registered sanitarian, and was responsible for well and septic inspections, food service establishment inspections, plan review, and quality control of the water laboratory in Gladwin County. Becky has a Bachelors of Science degree in Environmental Health and Biology, and a Masters of Science degree in Biology specializing in microbiology from Central Michigan University.

Within the next few months you will receive updated information regarding staff assignments for accreditation reviews, consultation areas and specialty assistance.

I hope you get an opportunity to meet Becky in the near future.
